AND MY PROMISE TO YOU

“ We’re not just filling prescriptions – we’re affecting lives. Our new state-of-the-art computer systems help assure that our patients get the drugs they need to get better. Our standards are high because we never lose sight of the fact that caring for people also means caring about people. ”

Amy Medows, RPh
Missouri Baptist Hospital-Sullivan
Registered Pharmacist

Amy Medows and the pharmacists at Missouri Baptist Hospital-Sullivan use their specialized training to make an important contribution to the quality of their neighbors’ lives. ☺ Each day, their knowledge and experience help patients receive the right medications in the right dose. ☺ And each day, this high-quality pharmacy service is delivered safely and accurately to friends, family members, co-workers and people in the communities they serve. ☺ Providing safe, quality health care is a commitment that Amy and her colleagues in the hospital pharmacy don’t take lightly – it’s a core value of their profession. ☺ And the results of this dedication are reflected in the faces of the people they see every day. ☺
